Checking Account	1,638.31
------------------	----------

The Checking Account balance includes $973.02 held in individual Scout accounts and $665.29 in troop liquid funds, of which $300.00 is allocated for the August 8, 2026 Court of Honor and $365.29 is unallocated.

4.2 Advancement

Duane Spainhour reported that Scoutbook was updated with the completions from Summer Camp and that he would be purchasing the required awards later in the week, with an expected total cost of approximately $100.

5 OLD BUSINESS

5.1 Popcorn

The committee discussed placing an order for the product cases available at no cost through Trail's End and the Old Hickory Council incentive program.

Motion

To order as many product cases as available at no cost through the Trail's End and Old Hickory Council incentive programs, in the following order of preference:

- 1 case of Kettle Corn
- 1 case of White Cheddar
- 1 case of Honey Roasted Peanuts
- 1 case of Chocolate Covered Pretzels

Made by: Ben Schell Seconded: Brittany Schell

Result: Approved

Action Item: Jason Paris to place the popcorn order with council.

The following dates were proposed for Show & Sale events:

- September 5–7, 2026
- September 26–27, 2026
- October 10–11, 2026

Action Item: Bev Spainhour to approach local businesses to obtain permission for storefront sales on the proposed Show & Sale dates.

5.1.1 Income Distribution

The committee discussed the income distribution policy for Show & Sale proceeds.

Motion

To approve the following income distribution policy for Show & Sale proceeds:

- All proceeds will be directed to the unit.
- Two sales incentives will be created: one if Scouts sell the complete show and sale inventory, and one based on overall sales.

Made by: Ben Schell Seconded: Duane Spainhour

Result: Approved

5.2 Wood Badge Ticket — Leadership Role Summaries

Jason Paris presented minor adjustments to the Leadership Role Summary document along with proposed policy changes and an onboarding checklist.

Ben Schell raised concerns that the uniform requirement could be a barrier to recruiting new adult volunteers.

Motion

To approve the leadership role summaries, policy changes, and onboarding checklist as presented.

Made by: Jason Paris Seconded: Duane Spainhour

Result: Approved

Action Item: Ben Schell to draft a uniform policy.

5.3 Summer Camp Results

Dakota Paris reported the disciplinary actions taken for each Scout involved in the summer camp vaping incident.

5.3.1 Annabelle Epperson

- Removed from unit leadership position (Scribe)
- 1-month suspension — eligible to return August 3, 2026
- Not eligible to attend the August camping trip
